Miguel Thomas

Guitar · Music Education

Director of Rock School Coruña and professional guitarist with more than 25 years of experience, Miguel Thomas combines a solid artistic career with a deep pedagogical vocation.

A guitar teacher since 1996, he has been an International Examiner for RSL Awards since 2021, accredited to assess instrumental and music theory examinations. He has conducted nearly 2,000 exams for candidates from China, Malaysia, Hong Kong, India, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, the United States, Singapore, Canada, the United Kingdom, Spain, Portugal, and other countries.

Since 2015, he has been a guest instructor at Mike Zágora's Guitar Camp, sharing the stage with internationally renowned guitarists such as Frank Gambale, Guthrie Govan, Tom Quayle, and Mattias IA Eklundh.

That same year, he began collaborating regularly as a guitarist with the Galicia Symphony Orchestra, contributing his versatility to contemporary symphonic productions.
